The Israel Securities Authorities permit under Section 49A to the Securities Law was issued on the basis of the permit holder's declaration that it is subject to the supervision of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Said entity's activity is not subject to the supervision of the Israel Securities Authority. This permit does not constitute an opinion regarding the quality of the services rendered by the permit holder or the risks that such services entail.

Past performance, whether actual or indicated by historical tests of strategies, is no guarantee of future performance or success. There is a possibility that you may sustain a loss equal to or greater than your entire investment regardless of which asset class you trade (equities, options or futures); therefore, you should not invest or risk money that you cannot afford to lose. Options trading is not suitable for all investors. Your account application to trade options will be considered and approved or disapproved based on all relevant factors, including your trading experience.
